

April 16, 2021
12 - 1 pm EST

Race Beyond Borders

Explore where Atlanta intersects with the global conversation on race for concrete action.

REGISTER HERE

Free and open to public

Roundtable Discussion: Student Views on Inclusion in the Global Workplace

Race Beyond Borders is a coalition of scholars, educators and colleagues from the following institutions and organizations:

Spelman

Mayor's Office of International Affairs

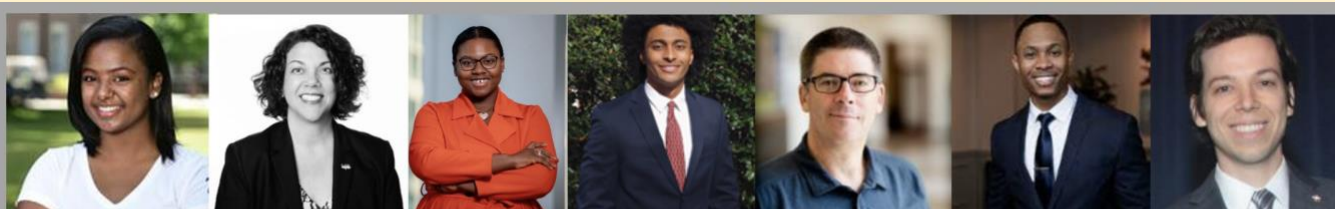

With Atlanta's growth as a global business hub, corporate initiatives on diversity, equity and social justice are intersecting in new ways with their mandate to cultivate a culturally competent workforce.

A new sense of urgency seems to have gripped the business community with the racial reckoning after George Floyd's death and the inequities spotlighted by the coronavirus pandemic in 2020.

As one of the most concentrated higher education hubs in the U.S., Atlanta is graduating thousands of increasingly diverse future workers who demand bold action on these crucial issues. And with a worker shortage already taking hold in some sectors, how well companies can meet students' demands for meaningful social action in their workplace will become a competitiveness issue.

Are companies ready for this new recruitment reality? Are students empowered to make their voices heard? Or does a diversity divide persist?

Join us for a lively, honest conversation with Atlanta-area students, educators, and advocates.

Fana Ruth HaileSelassie

President, Student Government Association; International Studies major & graduating senior, Spelman College

Panelist

Amy Henry

Executive Director of International Education, Georgia Tech

Introductory remarks & Panelist

Nneka Jones

Political Science & Business Management major & junior; Posse Foundation Scholar; Student Associate Member of the Board of Trustees; Public Relations Chair of IGNITE chapter, Agnes Scott College

Panelist

Mark Lannaman

Broadcast Journalism major & graduating senior, GSU; Fellow, "Every Learner Everywhere"; Associate Producer for "Crucial Conversations"; "African American Male Initiative", GSU

Panelist

Peter Roberts

Professor of Organization & Management; Academic Director of Specialty Coffee Programs at the Roberto C. Goizueta Business & Society Institute, Emory University

Panelist

Taos Wynn

Social Advocate Author Speaker

Panelist

Trevor Williams

Managing Editor, Global Atlanta

Moderator

More information:

AtlantaGlobalStudies.gatech.edu/Race-Beyond-Borders